Quick Facts

- 1970’s pioneered electronic access to legal and news sources
- 1994 - purchased by Elsevier for $1.5 billion
- World’s largest database for legal and public record info
- 10,000+ sources, full text
- Single platform to access 4 separate databases:
  - news, laws, law reviews, companies (business)
- Intuitive interface: 80% of all searches can be completed in Basic Search mode
- Excellent indexing, many methods of zeroing in on complex topics, expanding simple topics
- Updated in real time, 24/7

Accessing LexisNexis

- Off campus access: log in with EOU ID number and Pierce Library password
- Choose Databases on Pierce Library website. Can be located alphabetically or by subject (e.g. Legal, Business).
- For help, contact Pierce Library via Chat or email http://library.eou.edu/help/ask

Interactive LexisNexis Tutorial

http://gots.library.eou.edu/tutorial/lexisnexis